Unity for Progress--
At North Quincy High School
we have learned this way,
we have played this way,
we have built for tomorrow this way. May the Manet of 1961 be a symbol of this way of life!

DEDICATION

For twenty-five years, as our school secretary, you have been, behind the scenes, a gracious and efficient integrator of unity for progress. With understanding you have served to fuse the hundred-and-one calls beyond duty with the routine of your job as your generous contribution at North Quincy High School, and that is why to us you are such a special person. To you, Miss Esther Morrison, we dedicate the Manet of 1961.

Miss Esther A. Morrison

A routine scene in unity for progress.

They lead us in

JOHN W. WALSH
Principal

To the divisive, disintegrating forces of tyranny crying, "Divide and conquer" free men answer, "In unity there is strength." Primitive people sensed the warm urgency of the protective need to live and work together, but periodically Man has lost his way and, in the process, recognition of the basic value of unity. Those who would destroy us would do so by sowing the fatal seeds of disunity.

In human progress, unlike mathematics, the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. As each contributes in terms of his own dignity, the result surpasses the total of individual efforts. It must be remembered, however, that God created us as individuals, and it is as individuals that we dedicate ourselves to our tasks. If our lives are to be rewarding, we cannot surrender ourselves to becoming "mass" men. If progress is to be achieved, we must strike a neat balance, blending in proper proportion individual drive with unified effort. Then and then only can there be true progress through unity.

John W. Walsh

His interest encourages each unit in our progress be it academic with Vin, Mr. Stanton, and Pam . . .

FOOTBALL

This fall Coach Donahue and his assistants, Coach Leone and Coach Sadowski, started with what many rated as a poor team. However, with hard work on the part of both the coaches and the team, 1960's record of 6 wins and 3 losses was the finest in six years.

The first victim of the small but potent Raiders was the burly Black Knights of Stoughton whom the Red and Black defeated soundly. The Raiders next faced powerful Milton and went down to defeat after a hard-fought contest. But the determined Raiders worked diligently and came up with four successive victories, defeating Taunton, Cambridge Latin, Braintree, and Leominster. However, this streak was destined to be broken at the hands of a scrappy Dedham team. This jinx was to remain another week as North went down to defeat to a great Hingham powerhouse. Then came North Quincy's finest hour, as David met Goliath on Thanksgiving with David winning the turkey.

And so, on November 24, 1960, the great Donahue era at North Quincy High School came to a glorious finale with the decisive 28-20 victory over Quincy.

BASKETBALL

The North basketball team this year was one of those slow starters that gained momentum as the season progressed. This can be attributed to the fine handling of the squad by Coach Ken Rickson.

Dropping early games to Chelsea and Somerville, the Raiders knocked off a power-laden Alumni group, 71-69 in a last second thriller.

The Greater Boston League loomed stronger than in other years, and power houses such as Somerville, Quincy, and Everett downed our boys. Not to be dismayed, we bounced back to defeat Lowell twice, and Malden, Weymouth, and Revere in succession.

North was known as the team with the one-two punch, namely Richie Bryan and Gus Andrews. Both of these players were averaging twenty points a game. When Bill Tedrow, Bill Hay, Art "Skip" Law, or Dave Cahill were coming through with a fair amount of baskets, North was a sure bet to win.

Our team made up for its lack of height with its persistent determination.

Three of the wins to date prove that we can win the close ones. Our victories over the Alumni, Malden, Weymouth, and Revere were by two points.

As this feature goes to press, North Quincy is not eliminated and still has an outside chance of making the Tech Tourney if we win the remaining games.

HOCKEY

This year's opening game of Metropolitan Hockey League competition was a closely-fought one, with Malden edging Coach Laing's Raiders in the final period of play. The Raiders were driven back by Quincy in their next outing but came back strong the following week to trounce Chelsea 6-1. In the third game of the 1960-1961 season, the Red-men made hard skating and shooting pay off as they outlasted Everett to tally their second win.

Looking forward to handing unbeaten Christopher Columbus its first defeat, the North-enders were held in check during Christmas vacation competition. The Raiders had trouble getting started in their next two games and lost to Don Bosco and Malden.

In their second outing against Quincy, the Red-men held the edge in action for the first two periods but lost when Quincy scored twice late in the game. This game was rougher than most of their previous contests and was marked by close checking and a number of Raider penalties.

Coach Laing rearranged his forward lines and defensemen for the second Everett encounter. Co-captain Dave Higgins, centering Co-captains Jerry Crowley and Peter Cooke, scored first in the 2-2 tie, with junior Bill Campbell getting the tying goal.

With five games remaining to be played, Raider skating and shooting have improved considerably and promise five hard-fought contests.

BASEBALL

Whether at home or away, North frustrated both opposing pitchers and opposing coaches by producing scoring power in excess. Although they lost to teams such as New Bedford and rival Quincy, they calmly defeated Thayer, Hingham, and Don Bosco. Eddie Dunn was in constant demand by other schools to pitch against Don Bosco after shutting them out twice in succession. Gus Andrews also closed the door to opposition scoring in shutting out Thayer. Coach Phillips' hitting power showed up mainly in Eddie Carroll, Charlie Chambers, and Dick Omar, while Bill Hay, Dan Connolly, and Jerry Crowley proved to be the defensive standouts.

Beginning the season with a 8-7 victory over Milton Academy, they went on to beat B.C. High 6-4 before dropping their first to Quincy 8-0. Next they forgot to score two more runs in the Weymouth game and lost 4-3. Ashamed of this lapse of memory, they conjured up three shutouts in a row before losing to B.C. High, again by one run. From here on in they ran into tough opposition and dropped several in a row, with another one run loss, this time by the score of 5-4 to Hingham. However, they ended their season by beating Hingham 6-0. One suggestion: to progress as a unit save some of the 10-0 wins for the 4-3 losses.

TRACK

NORTH QUINCY

North Quincy began its 1960-61 season in the fall when Coach Dave Meaney called for some of the local harriers to run for the Cross Country Team. This year's team was the last for popular Coach Meaney, who retired at the close of the season. Among those runners who answered the call were John Palma, John Monahan, Marty Butler, who won the South Shore Meet, Junior Division, and Arnie Kaupp, who went undefeated. North lost many heartbreakers such as the meets against Weymouth, Rockland, and Archbishop Williams but was consoled by two victories over arch-rival Quincy.

Coach Bob Gentry

In Winter Track, North produced one of the finest teams ever. With Coach Bob Gentry at the helm, North won five and lost only one. The Raiders defeated Belmont, state champions for the past two years, by a score of 42-40 in their first meet. Next they romped over Watertown 54-28, smothered Weymouth 52-30, and ran away from Quincy 59-23. North's only loss was against Arlington 46-36. Although many felt that North was not up to par in the State Meet, the Raiders finished fifth out of twenty-six. North's top runners were John Parker in the dash, George Hutt in the 300, Dennis Pearl in the 600, and Arnie Kaupp in the 1000.

With the coming of the warm weather, North will again move to the Cavanaugh dust bowl for Spring Track. The team should do very well with its strong nucleus of returning veterans. Coach Gentry has high hopes for such standouts as Paul Chrestensen, Al Gordon, Jim Sumner, Jim Mowbray, Jeff Simmons, and Dick Kemp. Along with Coach Gentry, the yearbook editors feel that this has been and will be a track team of which North can really be proud.

George, Arnie, and Coach Gentry unify their action shots with the layout ideas of Janet and Lucille.

SOCCER

Last year's booters came back this year for their second season, as a tough, experienced, and well-organized Soccer Team. Nine lettermen returned, along with twenty-eight candidates going out for the first time. Of these new players Alan Gordan, Bill Jones, Robert Braga, Jack Stoker, and Dick Kemp played outstanding ball. Of the returning players, center Joe O'Donnell was the highest scorer, getting thirteen goals. Fullback and captain Jimmy Lynch, by using his head a great deal, became an outstanding defender. Our sensational goalie, Bill Mountford, did a great job in all the games, but was very outstanding in the last one with Duxbury, stopping many of Duxbury's drives, and helping greatly to win the game.

The season got off to a slow start with the team losing to Norwell, Duxbury, and Sharon, but we caught momentum, winning over Quincy and Avon. Next we lost to both Norwell and Sharon, followed by our win in the overtime period from arch-rival Quincy. After the second win over Quincy, spirits were high. Because of this, Avon and an out-of-the-league game with Thayer were won with ease. The crucial test of North's playing ability, however, came with the final game of the season with Duxbury, which was won by North, after a fourth quarter goal by Bill Quinn.

GOLF

Although last year's golf team proved to be one of the finest in recent years with a 10-3-2 record, this year Coach Donahue's team hopes to improve upon that splendid record. This year's team is led by seniors Don Nicholas, John Callahan, Rich Duncan, Ted Kowilick, and Bill Ohrenberger and sophomores Bob Aiken and John Barkas. North, an independent team, plays many of the state's finest teams including Archbishop Williams, Braintree, Brockton, Milton, Weymouth, and arch-rival Quincy. We wish this year's team the best of luck.

TENNIS

Last year in tennis, North's young and inexperienced team came out with a record of eight wins and eight losses. This record was quite a pleasant surprise to many followers of high school tennis on the South Shore. The team lost only two members through graduation and is looking forward to a successful 1961 campaign. Leading this year's team are returning lettermen, Larry and Dan Dworkin, Francis Rull, Richard Gorman, Dave Higgins, and Dennis Linnane. Mr. Roy Sinclair, after a short absence, will take over the coaching chores from Mr. Laing.

GLEE CLUB

The melodious tone of the saying: "There's music in the air" has been a happy accompaniment by North's Glee Club to the school unity that makes for progress. For surely the holiday mood of the Christmas assembly, the joyous spirit of the spring concert, and the fitting dignity of the graduation response are the strategically-placed contributions of the Music Department "to soothe the savage breast" of many a harried student. Indeed, vocal melody can't help being the emotional outlet of the select few that in turn produces the emotional satisfaction that motivates the many to a balance and a perception favorable to progress. All this have Mr. Bono and North's Glee Club done for us.

Frank, Jim, Gary, and Mr. Mason are doing some behind-the-scenes tinkering.

Believe it or not, this club actually pleases teacher and student at the same time. Our motion picture projectionists can be found in almost any classroom shortly after a half-crazed teacher screams for help to anyone in general. The club member finds the teacher tangled in fifty feet of visual aid and immediately proceeds to disentangle both machine and teacher. If an absolutely impossible situation crops up, Mr. Mason is always available to add his knowledge to the club member's to solve the problem. Meeting Thursday after school, President Jim Hagan, Vice President Paul Thomas, and Secretary-Treasurer Richard Anderson try to keep the club from leaving en masse for Hollywood and greener pastures. Many thanks to the MPPC and Mr. Mason for saving many an enjoyable period from the troubles of sometimes balky equipment.

LIBRARY STAFF

Judy, Clare, Jeanne, Alyce, Marian, Pat, and—let us not forget—Anne: The gay keepers of the books.

In any serious-minded school it goes without saying that the library is the salient unit for progress, for here the student body finds the source material that serves as the foundation of learning, the reference material that substantiates research, and the literature, past and present, that refines and ennobles.

And lucky we are at North that the esprit de corps we always sense among the officers Jeanne Saunders, Anne Davis, Linda Shay, and Marian Wilson, the sponsors Miss Sherman and Miss Countie, and, in fact, the whole library staff radiates to every student—freshman through senior—so that unity for progress benefits from a well-motivated setting.

NORTH STAR

Co-editor Candi unifies her staff—Gus, Barb, Rona, and Carolyn—for NORTH STAR progress.

Where would North be without our ever-active, popular newspaper the North Star manned this year by "Betty" Scanlan and Candi Wilson, co-editors-in-chief? No hot news escapes these two who have barely put the latest issue to press before beginning the crack-down on the newest scoops from sports' editor, "Gus" Andrews, and activities' editor, Barbara Shauffer. Bearing in mind the paper's excitement and bustle, Betty and Candi depend on business manager, Paul Riley, to keep our frequently-published newspaper financially capable.

Serving under these department heads and Adviser Murphy are several loyal cub reporters who are the best news hounds anywhere.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At the planning stage of "School Beautiful" Rona, Pete, Paul, Lucille, and Mr. Roberts get together.

"Will the meeting please come to order!" With these words Prexy Paul Riley wakens the twenty-seven Student Council members every Thursday at 7:45 A.M. Guided by Vice President Rona Van der Molen, Secretary Lucille Marchant, Treasurer Pete Cooke, and Mr. Roberts, the Council has held several successful dances and assemblies and has sold many bookcovers, bannerettes, and decals. Although the project for the year, a new lawn, was held up by plans for a new gym, North may have its "face lifted" in a few years because of the efforts of this year's Council. However, the most important function of the Student Council is to serve as the unit in the school through which the students and teachers can express their views and thus help North to keep progressing.

SPANISH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The motto of North's newest club, La Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica is "Todos a Una" or "All together." Each member pledges himself to master the Spanish language because, through language, bonds of friendship can be formed with other countries. Thus, the club does its part in bringing about international unity so necessary for world progress and well being.

The officers of North's Hermán Cortés Chapter are: Maxine Derany, President; Sabine Schmidtke, Vice President; and James Lindholm, Secretary-Treasurer. In all, there are eleven members, selected for their high achievement, from the ten Spanish classes.

The charter makes it official for sec.-treas. Jim, prexy Maxine, veep Sabine, and Miss Pratt.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

As officers of National Honor Society, Ron, Lloyd, Charlene, and Ruth take their work seriously.

The entrance to the golden path of success leads from North's National Honor Society to the outside world of opportunity that is waiting after graduation. North's exclusive society boasts of the junior and senior classes' elite who are outstanding in leadership, character, scholarship, and service. Advising the honor membership are Ronald Petrus, President; Ruth Scanlan, Vice President; Charlene Entwistle, Secretary; and Lloyd Rogers, Treasurer—all presiding under the pleasant guidance of Miss Louise Fifield and Miss Marie Youngerman.

Those who have earned membership to the National Honor Society will be the men and women of tomorrow who will bring additional fame to N.Q.H.S.

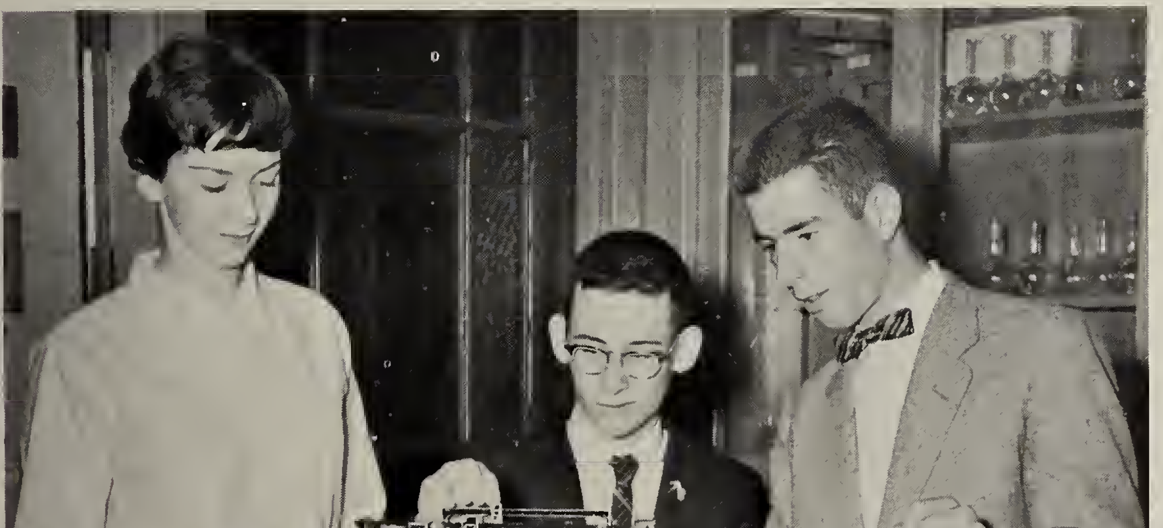
For the casual spectator standing in the fourth floor corridor, a big explosion accompanied shortly thereafter by a shower of flying glass and a body slamming against the opposite wall may be unusual. The Science Club is used to such miscalculations; the body calmly peels himself off the wall and returns to the experiment. Actually, the most common sight is of a strange man entering meetings Thursday afternoons in 429 with an empty briefcase and leaving with a bulging one. The curious may see the same man entering a car marked U. S. Government parked outside. The officers Donald Hoffman, Christine Jensen, Judy Perley and Peter Rubin along with Miss Schields seem to unite the club for the whole country's progress.



Cyndi, Don, and Joe check the accuracy of a new balance.

SCIENCE CLUB

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Paul, Candi, Mr. Donahue, Gus, and Helen have progressed united.

The squaws and braves of Yakoo's home reservation, North Quincy High, many moons ago threw their torches into the ceremonial fires and elected new pow-wow men. Heap Big Chief "Gus" Andrews whoops it up in his new war paint, as Big Chief No. 2, Candi Wilson, dances in the circle ahead of Write-'um-down-Chief Helen Oakes and Clean-'um-pockets ($$) Chief Paul Coughlan, to the delight of all of the Injuns who smoke-'um-peace pipe around the ceremonial ring.

The Yakoo Senior Class '61 war path trails to tepee 325, the beaded tent house of the worthy Medicine Man, Mr. Donahue, who cures all ills and vanishes all bad spirits after a very ghostly study of the evils.

The beating of the tom-toms announces the event of big pow-wows where, after a smoky session with the peace pipes, Chief "Gus" uses his trusty bow to quiet the cries of the lazy squaws and braves by setting up small war parties where they can wear off their energy by planning big festivals for the nights of the quarter moon: two Senior Class Dances, the night the heavens let their stars play in twinkling delight as a good omen, the Senior Prom, and the final appearance of the full moon, Class Day.

As we gaze into strange tee-pee fires after we've packed our ponies and have spread out to other reservations, we'll never forget the glow of the Camp Fire of Knowledge at North Quincy that we all took a little warmth from and added a little fuel to.

Gus, Candi, Helen, and Paul lead the moccasinned Raiders quietly away from the grilling of buffalo and of exams, from scalping and report cards, to brave the new frontiers of the wide open spaces and the future. Yes we of Yakoo are ready for anything and everything.

JUNIOR CLASS

Louis, Gail, Miss McCoy, Betty, and Debby progress united.

They say that behind every successful man there is a woman; but behind Junior Class President Louis Malzone, there are three: Veep Gail Welch, Secretary Debby Wye, and Treasurer Betty Apsit. These four junior executives are constantly challenged with things to be done, starting the busy year with the hectic fall Halloween record hop and winding up in the spring with the comparatively new romantic spectacular, the Junior Prom.

Freshmen, sophomores, and seniors alike can usually look to the juniors for a new gimmick such as arousing school spirit with ten-cent red cardboard footballs, urging North on at Thanksgiving.

Thanks to sponsor Miss McCoy, the eleventh graders really work on projects just as gigantic but not as extravagant as the Seniors. One of their main goals is to build up the Junior Class treasury from nothing to something which will carry over in the senior year with funds for the best Prom ever.

The glow that the Junior Class officers spread warms their classmates to motivation and inspires them to pitch in and enthusiastically join committees, committees, and more committees. Thus the Junior Class surely does progress united, for this cooperation helps to make both the Junior and Senior years the greatest.

Prexy Louis takes it easy.

OFFICERS

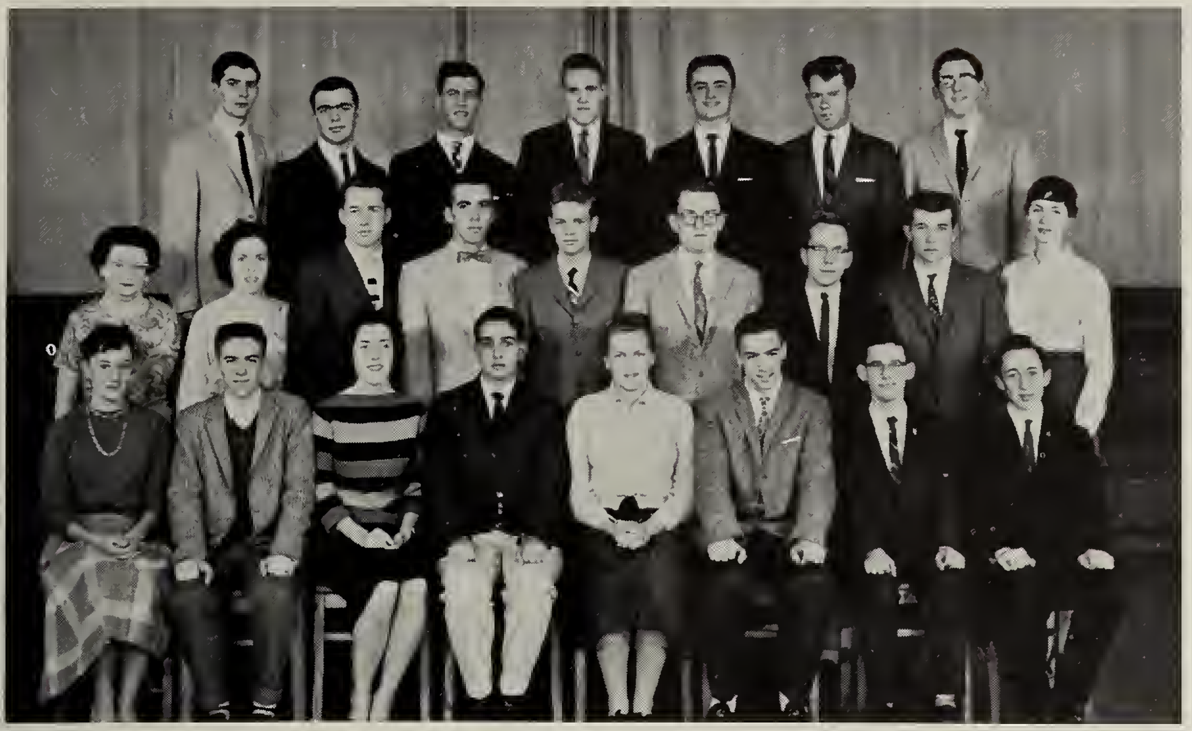
RIFLE CLUB

Standing constant guard against aggression upon North Quincy is our own Rifle Club. Every Monday and Wednesday at 7:00 it meets, formulates plans of attack, and proceeds to demolish targets in Atlantic's gym with uncanny accuracy. Trying to keep out of the way of flying projectiles is Mr. Burgess, who shows the club the fundamentals of this fascinating sport. President James Lynch, along with his Vice President Bill Ohrenberger, Secretary Virginia Lantery, Treasurer Craig Jackson and Range Master Al Greene is always at the front of the line. The club is ever increasing in popularity and for both its experienced and novice members it is the highlight of the week. Let's hope that the Rifle Club will continue to keep together and move forward as one of the most popular and interesting of North Quincy High School's extracurricular groups.

Firing squads at N.Q.H.S. are all in fun.

MATH CLUB



The subject of math may and does scare many of us; however, there are some in our group who also find it enjoyable. These are the seniors who spend one Tuesday a month messing up Miss Horrigan's blackboards with nonsensical symbols. But don't let the one Tuesday a month fool you. It's not unlikely for the hardy soul who wakes up the school every morning to find one of the erstwhile members of the club wandering bewilderingly up and down the fourth floor with used math paper five inches deep strewn behind him. If you happen to find one, don't scare him. Just notify President John Coury, Vice President Ruth Scanlan, Secretary Janet MacDonald or Treasurer Arnie Kaupp. They are as skilled in handling this type of problem as they are with the advanced mathematics.

John and Arnie are both at the theoretical stage—Ruth is putting into practice Janet's theory.

RECEPTIONISTS

Each new visitor to North receives a favorable impression of our school as soon as he steps through the front door. He is greeted by a welcoming smile and then is given careful directions on how to find his way through our maze of corridors. Our team of receptionists are always right on the job in greeting our guests and in providing the friendly atmosphere which characterizes our school. Hardly anyone can lose his way when armed with instructions from these girls. These promoters of friendly relations are living examples of unity for progress so quickly do they make the stranger feel at home.

PEP CLUB

Under the sporting leadership of Dianne Crowley, Pres., Clare Cavanaugh, Veep, Elaine LaRochelle, Sec.-Treas., and Mr. Roy Sinclair, sponsor, the Pep Club girls exploded school spirit all over the place. In their new outfits of black kilts and red sweaters, these girls unified the enthusiasm of the spectators and the playing-field know-how of the teams into many an athletic victory. In fact, the girls are still masses of goose pimples of delight over the lift they gave towards the Thanksgiving victory over arch-rival Quincy!

BOYS' STUDENT LEADERS

Undoubtedly most of Miss Gray's worries in this otherwise healthy world came from the student leaders. Her fears are seldom based on fact, however. Although walking on the ceiling is definitely rather dangerous, these boys do it with impunity. Actually, Miss Gray's only case this year came from a slightly confused but game freshman who would up in health service after trying to pass the parallel bars to deliver a note to Mr. Rickson. There is a lesson to be learned here. If you are a perpetual note-deliverer, beware of Room 111 Monday, Wednesday, or Friday last period. You might unexpectedly meet such assorted characters as Paul Chrestensen, Dick Sacchetti, Skip Pierce, or Jerry Judice in some very assorted positions.

Although the boys learn almost everything flipped in their direction, there is always more to try. The club keeps moving forward to the credit of themselves, of their adviser and teacher Mr. Rickson, and of North Quincy High School as a whole.

MAJORETTES

North's drum majorettes are now stepping higher than ever before, thanks to the original and ingenious plans of their ever-patient and always-energetic sponsor, Mr. Roy Merritt.

When the girls gather in 228 every fall Monday afternoon, there's a mad scramble to receive the precise diagrams for their new routine for the next Saturday's game. While the victorious North Football team practices the T-formation, our enthusiastic majorettes perfect the NQ and visiting schools' initials formation.

Every autumn Saturday afternoon the high-steppers drill pre-game to the energizing tones of "Rah for North Quincy!" and drill during half-time jamborees to peppy routines which dazzle the spectators in the bleachers and lure the others away from the hot coffee stand.

As head majorette Pam Sawyer blows the whistle, every gal steps left, right, in unison (watch the rear line!) and displays twirling magnificence to the welcome cheering which makes the long practice hours worthwhile. And this year Thanksgiving morn saw the ultimate reward as our two squads, the football and the majorette, earned the privilege of parading victoriously home.

Pam and Diane march with precision.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Anyone who found an absence of females in North's corridors on Tuesday afternoons had only to find his way to the gym. There, some of the decisive battles of the day were being waged. The contestants, who often dressed themselves in odd fashions, took their work seriously, and struggled earnestly to bring glory to their team. Their instruments: large brown balls which inflicted sharp pain when bounced on someone's head.

Thus, the visitor found North's Girls' Basketball Teams. He often laughed at the trivial scores and the strange titles of the teams, but the girls' work was impressive. They displayed spirited loyalty to their team whether they won or they lost. What each girl lacked in talent was made up for by her enthusiasm and intent to win the game.

This year's turnout for the basketball tournament proved it to be one of the most popular institutions at North and one that is surely here to stay.

A jump ball calls for quick action from Karren and Carol.

HI-Y

Here's a wonderful find for all the girls of N.Q.H.S. This male entourage is planning everything from dances to community projects. An extra note for all you who may be contemplating a better life under a different ideology—the group has been to hear Herb Philbrick. North has nothing to fear from insurrection.

Carl Hohmann is becoming an expert at banging the gavel, but he's getting tired of telling his Vice President Jim Lindholm that he should have done his physics homework before the meeting. Secretary Jerry Judice would like to know what "the minutes" are, and where is Ed Rioux and all the money? It looks as if Mr. McLeod surely has his problems in getting these guys united for progress.

Then you undoubtedly have not appreciated the band. You are in the minority, however, for the band, meeting last period Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, is certainly appreciated. They haven't lost a football game in years! Mr. Ferrante is kept very busy cleaning out trombone slides plugged with gum by President Carol Wright, Vice President James Paul, Secretary Bill Turner, and Treasurer Tom Lyons. I'm sure none of us will ever forget the band marching down the football field last November 24th.

CHEERLEADERS

The year 1960-1961 was one of innovation for the cheerleading squad. And, indeed, why not? With a new and peppy sponsor, Mrs. Averill, the girls caught a collegiate contagion. First, with foresight they held tryouts last spring for the new cheerleaders. And don't think for a minute that this was not the most basic move made in a long time, for the value of late summer practice sessions paid off richly in the fall.

Then to symbolize all the nuances of the school colors—red and black—the girls felt newly designed uniforms were in order so the co-captains decked in white blouses, scarlet jumpers, and jet black sweaters, and the rest of the squad costumed in white blouses, black jumpers, and scarlet sweaters not only gave out with school spirit but also looked the part.

Furthermore, to enable themselves always to execute their intricate and eye-appealing stunts, all of which are built around a full complement of twelve performers, the girls hit upon the idea of a full-fledged cheerleader in reserve. Indeed many a time this season with the unavoidable absence of one of the regulars, this cheerleader, pulled out of the proverbial hat, was more than a substitute. She was the preserver of the perfection by which North's squad was able to be the unifying force between the encouragement from the bleachers and the progress of the team to a win.

TEACHERS' CAREER CLUB

This year the Teachers' Career Club took on a new aspect—that of finding out the fields of specialization which are open to today's teacher. Under the able direction of Mr. Savitsky the members have sought the field which they think is best suited to them. To accomplish this goal, the club began with a visit to Boston University to compare the advantages of an education in a liberal arts college with those in a teachers college. Teachers of the blind, deaf, and retarded children lectured the club on the advantages of their field, and some of the specialized people at North helped also.

Not all was work, however, for the club held parties and its annual year-end banquet. This year's officers were Pamela Franklin, President; Gail Uhthoff, Vice President; Margaret Rowe, Secretary; Karren Kirkland, Treasurer.

NURSES' CAREER CLUB

Every imaginable facet of unity for progress highlighted the busy schedule of the Nurses' Career Club from the energetic vision of the officers Andrea Gillespie, Maureen Fitzgerald, Kathy Lawler, Evelyn McGue, and of the sponsor Miss Alice Gray to the variety and helpfulness of the program itself.

"Like help"—Evie, Moe, Kathy, and Andy are on duty.

At Christmas the club adopted through the Family Service a mother and five children ranging from six to twelve years. With each girl contributing clothing, toys, and fifty cents in money, the family luxuriated both in gifts and in the things of their hearts' desire that they were able to buy with the money donation.

Professional meetings with such noted guest speakers as Miss Stanfield, Director of Nurses at Quincy City, Mrs. Barbara Nichols, instructor at B. U., and Mrs. Goldie Barton, instructor at Shattuck, were most helpful.

Then the personalized meeting when Sue Kelly of Quincy, Pat McCormack of Whidden Memorial, Kathy LeBlanc of Holy Ghost, and Pat Mulhern of Faulkner, all alumnae of North, detailed their training experiences whetted the girls' desire more than ever for nursing careers.

What with objective nursing tests and five hospital visits still on the agenda, this club doesn't miss a trick in its high school briefing.

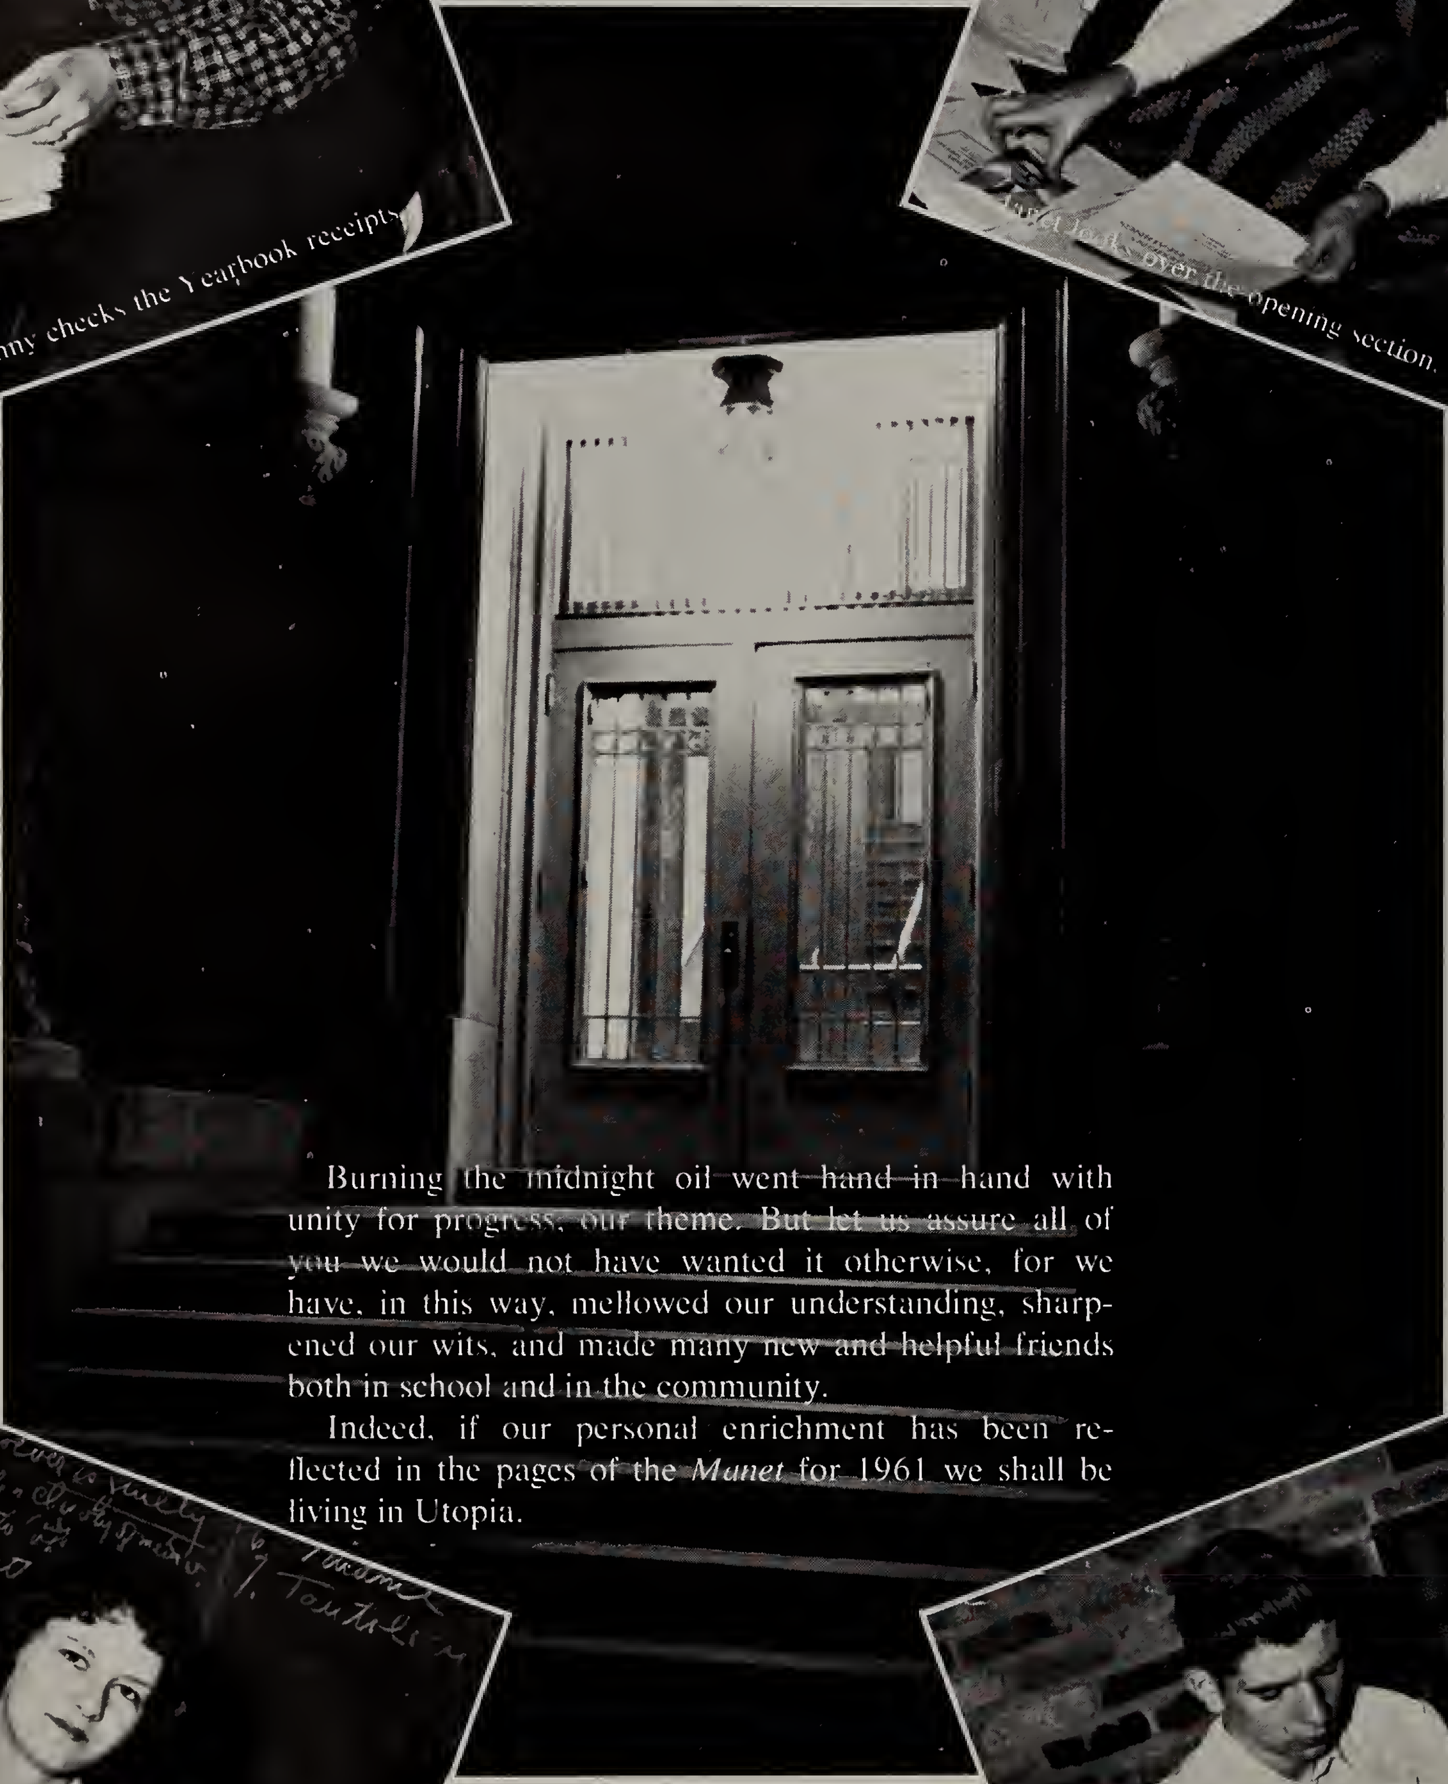
Janet broods over the opening section.



Burning the midnight oil went hand in hand with unity for progress, our theme. But let us assure all of you we would not have wanted it otherwise, for we have, in this way, mellowed our understanding, sharpened our wits, and made many new and helpful friends both in school and in the community.

Indeed, if our personal enrichment has been reflected in the pages of the Manet for 1961 we shall be living in Utopia.

CLASS DAY

It takes hard work, a sense of humor, and loads of imagination for our Class Day Committee to plan our last day together as the Senior Class of '61.

"Real crazy!" is the only expression we can find to describe the happy mood we share on the way to the King Philip for our day of relaxation and fun. And our day is just too short.

As we drowsily head for home after the perfect day, only the expectation of the class banquet that night can pep up our tired old bones and sun-burned backs. And at the soirée the transformation from pigtails and tanning oil to party dresses, and ties proves to all that we are ready to stay grown up.

PROM AND DANCE COMMITTEES

The detailed preparations for our "Sentimental Journey" began to take shape long ago last September when chief engineers Caroline D'Angelo and Steve Gomes set down the plans for the dreamiest Senior Prom yet. Along with the steady committees working toward the big night, Caroline and Steve sent out invitations to the largest graduating class that North has ever known, asking us to enjoy the flower-decorated King Philip ballroom on May 19, 1961, our Prom. We all began to await eagerly the special evening hardly hiding our curiosity for the surprise favors or our appetite for the delicious turkey or roast beef dinner.

A second group of workers, the dance committee, began at the same early date to pave the road for three terrific Senior Class dances. These hard-working seniors thought up alluring names and funny antics for the successful hops which abounded in fun and enjoyment and soared the class treasury to the skies, so that we could finance the expenses of the all important trip, the "Sentimental Journey."

VARSITY CLUB

Pick up the vigor of the gridiron, the litheness of the basketball court, the alacrity of the hockey rink, the batting of the baseball diamond, and the speed of the cinder path and drop them down with a bang in room 202, and up will spring the vitality of the Varsity Club, a North Quincy standout. And, boy, that vitality has no end of facets. On December 28 it sparkled into a Christmas Serenade formal in our gym bedecked in the holiday finery of the smartest supper club ever.

Also, who can forget its memorable sports assembly when President Mike Regan presented a fast-moving card of athletic greats! But what sparked the occasion was the surprise piece de resistance: The presentation of two professionally attractive trophies to our 1960-1961 outstanding athletes: Andrea Gillespie and Dave Higgins.

With Bill Tedrow as Vice President, Paul Coughlan as Secretary, and Dave Higgins as Treasurer, Faculty Adviser Bob Laing and President Mike Regan had a unit of energy that progressed into a whirlwind of social, fraternal, and athletic achievement.

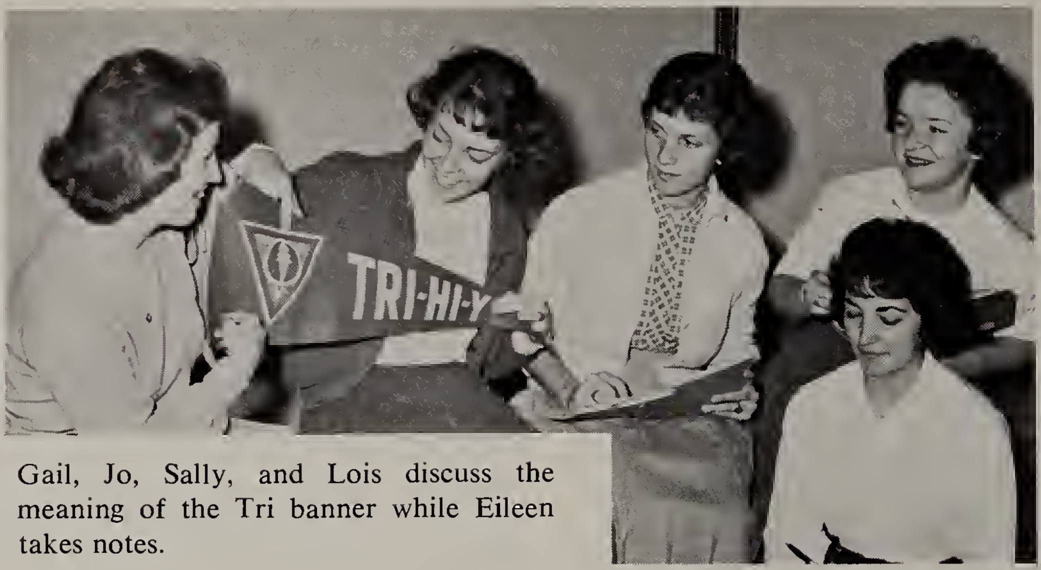
TRI-HI-Y



Gail, Jo, Sally, and Lois discuss the meaning of the Tri banner while Eileen takes notes.

That organization with the mysterious club names, Aurora Borealis and Tri-Raiders Tri-Hi-Y, has become well known through the work and fun of North girls to the extent of forming two clubs because of the high interest.

Leading the Aurora Borealis activities every second and fourth Monday are Mary Evans, President; Donna Dahlquist, Vice President; Kathy Lawler, Secretary; Karren Kirkland, Treasurer; and Pam Franklin, Chaplain.

Presiding over the Tri-Raiders every first and third Wednesday are Joanne Zoia, President; Gail Uhthoff, Vice President; Eileen Lombardi, Secretary; Sally Giallongo, Treasurer; and Lois McCarthy, Chaplain.

Both clubs, finding time to try out new recipes for cake sales, scrubbing cars at car washes, and collecting articles and food for their "adopted" families, strive to realize their goal: to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character. And there's plenty of fun at Friday record hops, the winter semi-formal, and the spring dinner dance.

RED CROSS

Progress Through Unity is the goal of this year's Red Cross Council. This ambitious and industrious group of girls have completed many projects: their weekly visits of cheer with the ladies at the Friel Nursing Home, making holiday boxes and stuffed animal toys for the hospitals, compiling a school album for a foreign country, and learning First Aid through a course given by Miss Alice Gray, school nurse.

The girls are extremely grateful for the guidance given by Miss Rose Enos, for the efficient leadership of President Beth Reardon, and for the cooperation of the other able officers of the club—Vice President Cynthia Lindholm; Secretary Mildred Curreri; and Scribe Sabine Schmidtke. They have, indeed, made this a truly satisfying year.

GIRLS' BOWLING

"What do I do now?" is a familiar sound to all harrassed boys who accompany certain girls to bowling alleys on Friday nights. To explain for the umpteenth time "If you knock 'em down with one ball, push the button!" causes the boys to become rather annoyed at their otherwise well-appreciated dates. So if you don't want to have this happen to you, girls, join our girls' bowling club. You will certainly learn from Miss McCoy all the fundamentals of the very popular pastime. Just watch President Donna Fusco, Vice President Jeanette Weber, Secretary Diane Donato and Treasurer Janice Coolen knock the pins over Monday afternoons at the Norfolk Downs alleys. One of the basic unwritten rules of the club: "Do well now, but not Friday night."

KEY CLUB

North Quincy's Key Club, with Mr. Paul Carlin for its genial and forward-looking adviser, has become one of North's most vigorous service clubs. Led by President Joe O'Donnell, Vice-president Ralph Anderson, Secretary Fred Ritchie, and Treasurer Steve Ricciardi, the North Quincy chapter has dedicated itself to a program in public relations.

Beginning this school year with a much stronger force than in previous years, the club planned an ambitious agenda. For in addition to the annual baby-sitting service at election time, the club adopted Quincy's class for retarded children as its pet project. The officers gave support by visiting the class and then reporting to the club membership at which time by unanimous vote the boys bought a useful gift for the class.

Perhaps the real spirit of the boys was best exemplified when by volunteering they forfeited free time on a Saturday morning for manual exertion to repair pre-game vandalism at Braintree High done by unknown rowdies preceding the North-Braintree football game. In January the boys gave an appreciation banquet for their parents. Their surprise presentation of a plaque to Mr. David Meaney, the retiring cross-country coach, was another of the club's warm gestures.

And socially the boys are no slouches as all who frolicked at their Basketball-Sock Hop will shout from the chimney tops. All in all, these boys and their adviser share a nice unity of outlook that can't fail to highlight the progress of the club.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Under the direction of the new dramatic coach, Mr. Jacques Maynard, the Dramatic Club has offered a unique experience in play direction and production. With "Balcony Scene," President Fred Ritchie, Vice President Kathy White, Secretary Regina Brennan, and Treasurer Paul Frazer initiated the club into an active season.

"Balcony Scene," a one-act play, was the Club's first performance and featured Fred Ritchie, Linda Shay, Stephanie Watson, and Eugene Ryder in the starring roles. Following this play, Fred, Eugene, and Stephanie performed at Boston University on closed television.

The Club has given instruction in costuming, make-up, lighting, sound, and stagecraft as well as in acting, and its members have found this activity a source of benefit as well as pleasure.

SKETCH CLUB

North Quincy High School has its own notable National Gallery in room 401. Here presides the curator, Miss Anne Sawitsky, impeccable in her standards and in her taste. Here the Sketch Club both works and exhibits.

No matter what the season of the year, half a dozen or more avid service-members are turning out artistic posters for worthy school and community projects. Decorations, both classical and modernistic, tantalize the talent of members and in their competent execution give added pleasure to the events for which they form the setting.

Murals, panoramic scenes, portraits, still life, and scenes from nature are periodic themes for exhibitions that all art lovers at school crowd in to see.

GIRLS' CLUB

Great oaks out of little acorns grow, and so out of the Thursday afternoon executive board meetings of North's Girls' Club has materialized a towering array of bigger and better projects. The sponsoring of the pins realized big campaign funds that were devoted to local charities the girls love to help. Then the annual Thanksgiving collection resulted in over a dozen cartons of canned goods for the Family Welfare Society to distribute to local needy families.

And socially a memory ever to be cherished was Wonderland by Night, the Valentine semi-formal on Saturday, February 11. The soft lighting of a wintry blue haze that caught the romance of a New England snowy landscape provided the setting for Cupid to thrust his darts.

But the girls do not work only on their own projects! Rather, believing in unity for progress, they unite their efforts with those of all the students of talent to produce a springtime revue, a generous percentage of whose funds they offer to the Manet's business manager to help lessen the cost of the classbook to the individual seniors.

This year Caroline D'Angelo, Janice Giachetti, Charlene Entwistle, and Jeanne Saunders integrated their teenage ingenuity with the inspiration of Miss Katz and Mrs. Axelrod on those fateful Thursday afternoons that enriched the year's activities.

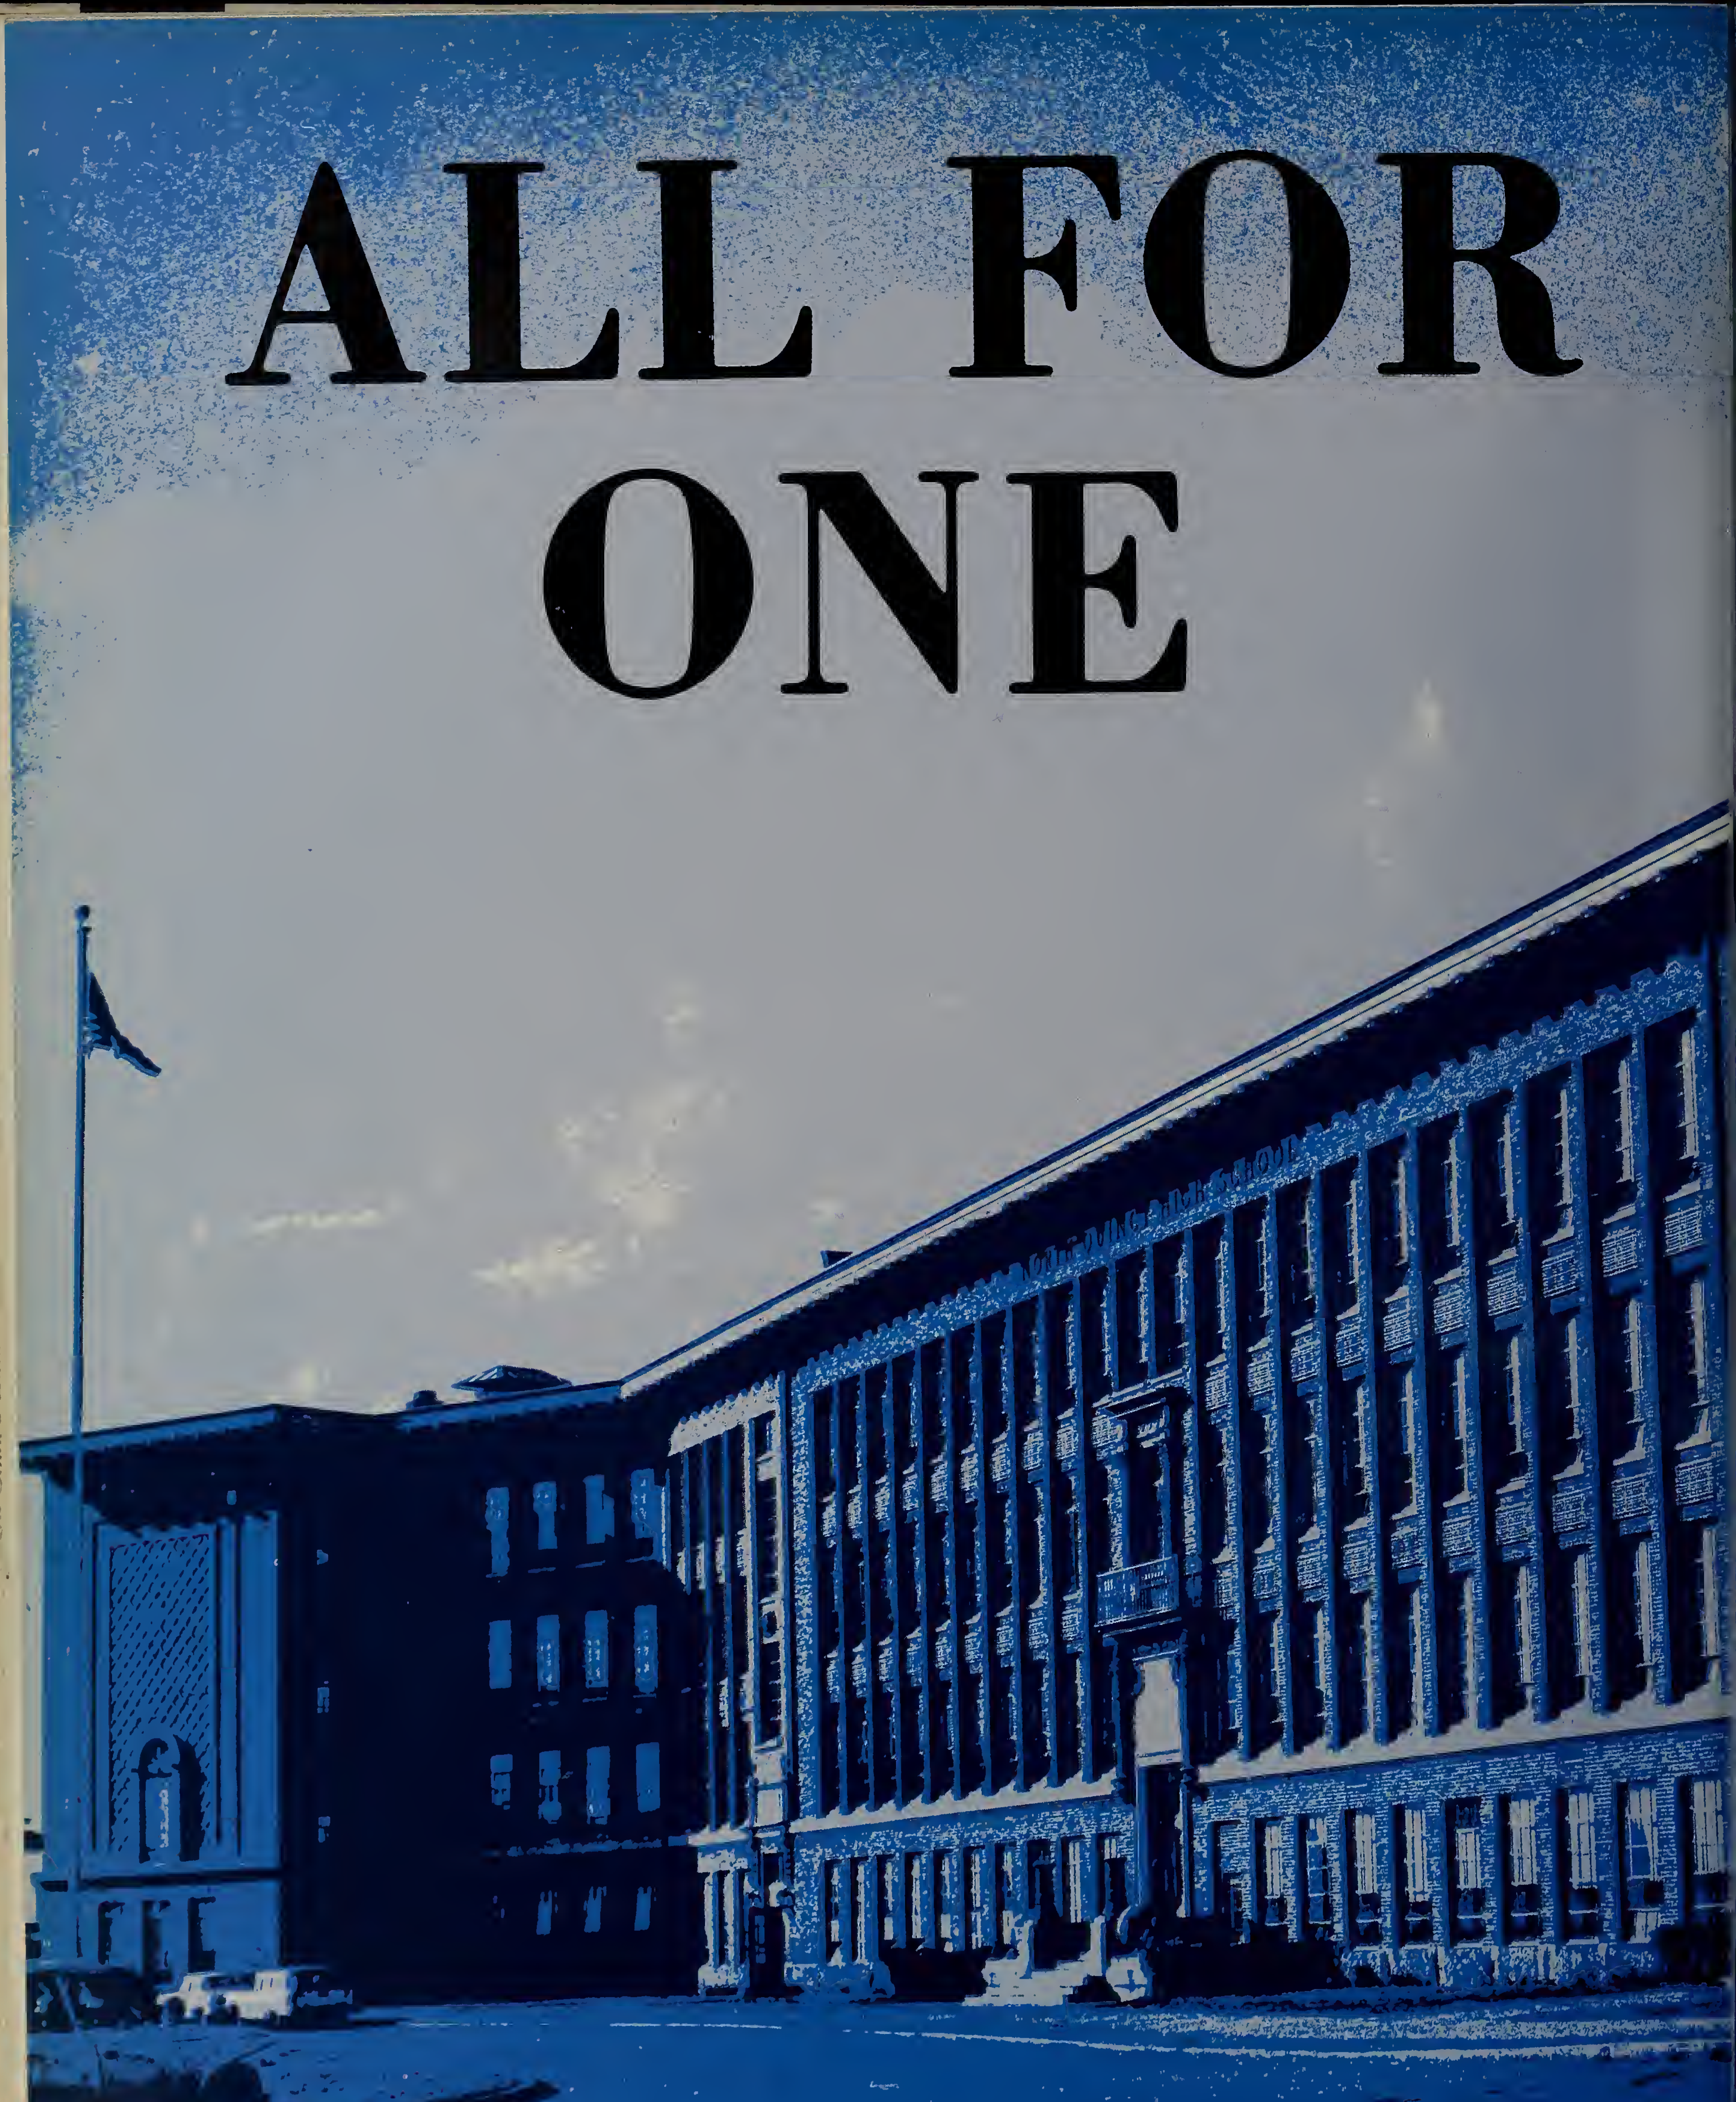
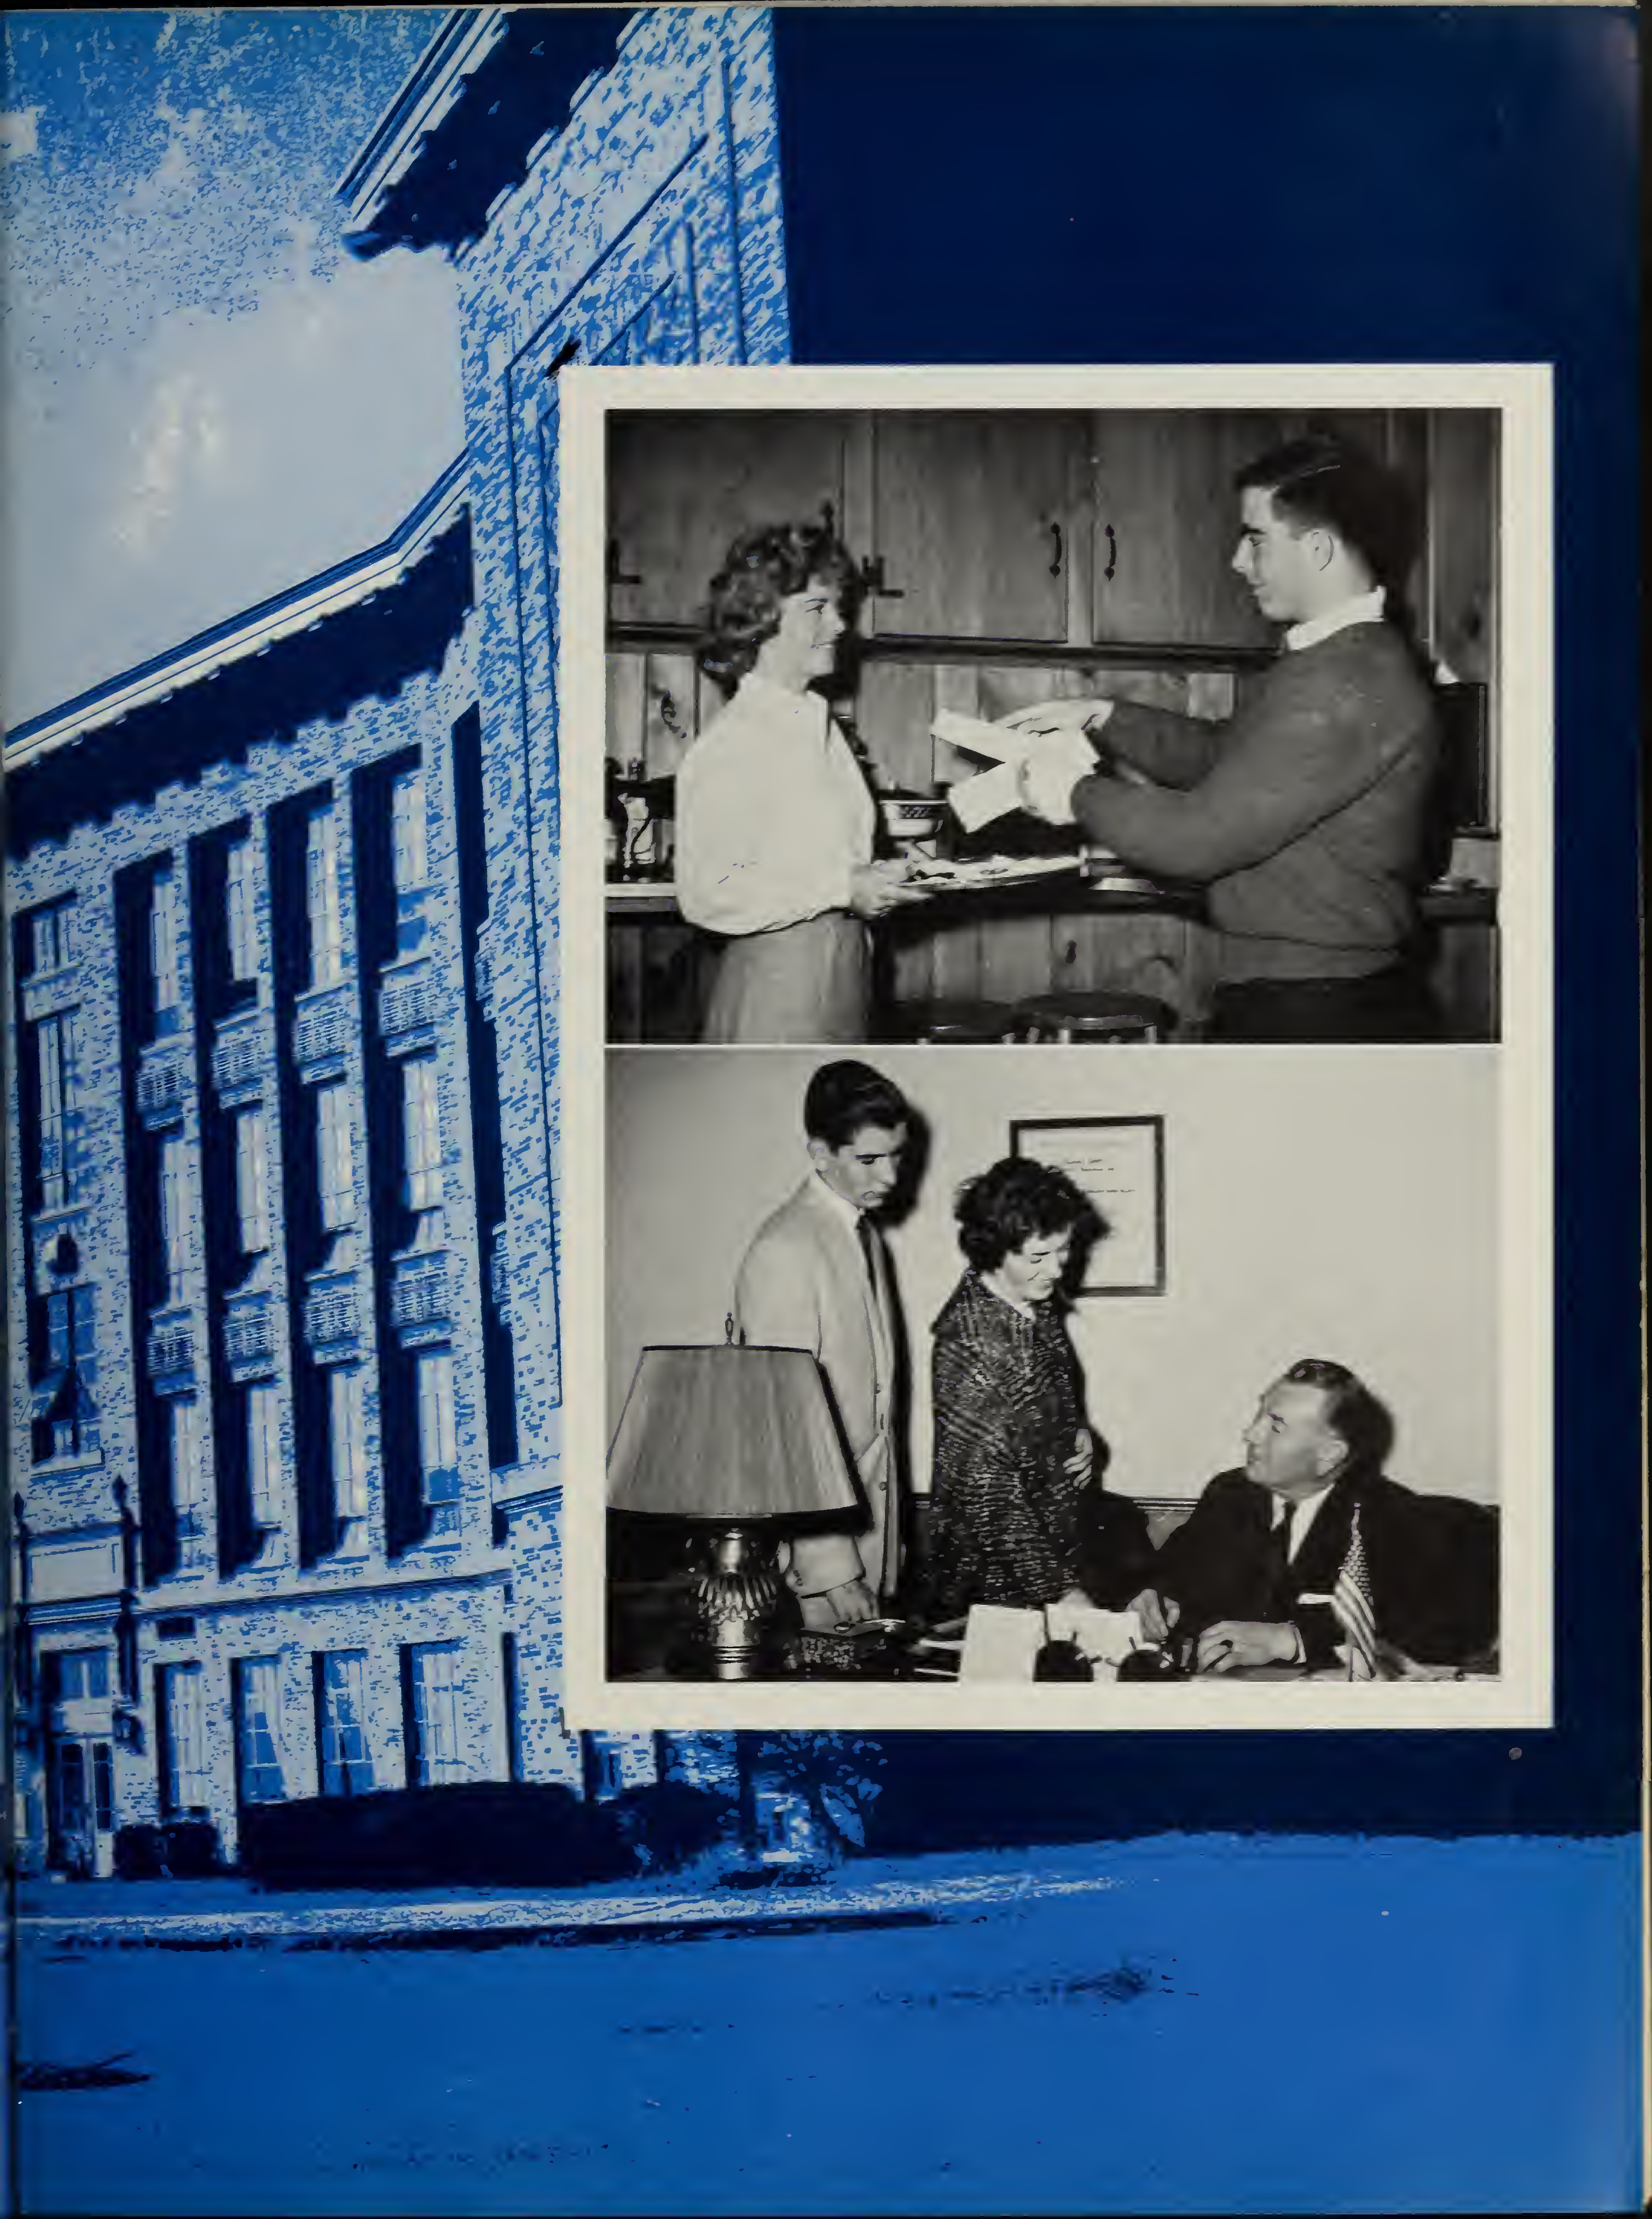
ALL FOR ONE





Many people have united through the MANET of 1961 to give us a permanent record of our progress as we have learned, played, and built for tomorrow in the Class of 1961. In fact, the very progress of this book has been realized through the unity of purpose of my advisers and assistants.

Mr. John Hofferty, faculty adviser, Mr. James Bleiler, school photographer, and Mr. Roswell Farnham, representative of Keller Press: I know that much of your energy and experience rubbed off on us this year inspiring us to go on when we were discouraged and lacking ideas. Advertising, Commercial, Editorial, and Patron Staffs: You have worked long hours to get this book ready for press and now that your work is completed I hope you are as happy with the result as I am. Janet, John, Ronnie, and Lloyd: Thanks for uniting the efforts of these staffs and for doing many other tasks, too innumerable to mention. I'll admit the going's been rough at times but I'm sure you are as proud of this book as I am. Patrons and Advertisers: You have served to unite the community with our school through your valuable financial aid. So to all of these people and to any others who have helped along the way, I say "thanks" both as editor-in-chief of the MANET and as a member of the Class of 1961.
